Our friends here inquire for you. Wm. & Wendell Garrison have a strong desire to see you. It seems strange that they have never seen you. Mr. Garrison appears to be in much better health than I expected to find. It is delightful to see him looking so well.

In haste,

Yrs. truly,

Mary Grew.

I attended, on Friday, a very interesting meeting of the Am. Soc.'s Ex. Com. where the Standard was fully discussed. They are very earnest in their determination to sustain it, if they can, and propose some measures, of which I mean to write to you, when I have more leisure. If you have not heard it you will be surprised to hear that, at this critical moment, Mrs. Chapman declines holding the annual Festival. The Com. discussed the matter, & voted, unanimously, that they would hold it. For its success they will strive vigorously, both here & in England.

If you should see Sarah Pugh, please say to her that I mean to write to her as soon as I can do so, at length. I don't want to write hurriedly, as I am obliged to do now.

To J. M. McKim.

Boston, July 14th 1861

Dear Miller,

Mr. Wallcut showed to me, the other day, a letter which he had received from you, relative to the Liberator acct., and made some inquiry of me, concerning it. He said that if the proposed discount would affect your receipts he should wish to allow it; if, only, the receipts of our Soc.y, he was, I think, otherwise inclined. I could not tell him, with certainty, but said that I thought it affected only the latter, and that I presumed our Committee would not care about it. If this is the case, perhaps it would be as well not to make the discount; especially as our pecuniary auxiliaryship to the Am. Soc.y does not seem to be very highly reputed, here, just now.